

PRIEST: Let us bring our prayers before God, who is our refuge and strength, as we remember those who have suffered and died in war, and as we seek peace in our time.

READER: We remember Pope Leo and all religious leaders. May they challenge the people of our troubled world to work together in ever greater understanding and peacefulness. (Pause)

Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember the people of the Caribbean following Hurricane Melissa, of the Philippines after Typhoon Kalmaegi, and of Afghanistan after its serious earthquake. May they receive the support that they need and find hope as they try to rebuild their homes and lives. (Pause)

Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember all who have died in war especially those from our own Parish who died in conflict: James Cremonini, Cyril Collett, Daniel Ferus, Frank Holland, Philip Powell, Wilfrid Sutton and Robert Woods. We remember those who were wounded or experienced life-changing trauma. May those who have died rest in the peace of Christ and the survivors find healing of their lives and memories. We also remember members of the armed forces, peacekeepers, and all who risk their lives for the sake of others. Grant them courage, wisdom, and protection. (Pause)

Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember leaders of nations and peacemakers everywhere, especially in the Middle East, Ukraine, Myanmar and Sudan. May they work with integrity and courage to resolve conflict and build a just peace. (Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember families who still grieve, comrades who carry the weight of memory, and all whose lives were changed by loss. May they know comfort, hope, and the calming presence of God. (Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We pray that those touched by shadows of bereavement, may feel themselves close to their dear ones, through him whose light even death could not overcome. We remember those who have died recently: Anthony Herron, Antonio Albini, Mary Nichol, Michael Donnelly, Robin Easterby, John Pears, Gilbert Anderson, Father Tony Rohan, Denis Linehan, Doctor Denys Nicol, Anthony Delaney, Alan Gorman, Donald Platt, Seamus Manley, Phil Walsh and Anne Weir. We also remember those with anniversaries at this time. (Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember all who are sick, those in hospital and those who are housebound. We remember especially the sick of our own Parish, Angela Keating, Benjamín Wort, Lilian, William Moran, Damian Poole, Tony Duffy, Philomena Gallagher, Ken Shirley, Savio Baretto, Eddie Martin, Helen Brookes, Briege Williams, Jonathan Williams, Anthony O'Neill, Michael, Patrick, Aiden & Anne O'Donnell, Margaret Hughes, Paulina Samathar, Father Michael White, Breda Fleming, Juliana Benjamin, Kate Nelson, Wilson Cotton, Angela Hyland, Cornelius Callanan, Noreen O'Connor, Larry Perkins, and our families wherever they may be. (Pause)

Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

Let us ask Mary the Mother of the Lord to pray with us: Hail Mary...Now let us pray for a few moments in silence for our own needs and intentions and for those intentions placed in the prayer box.

PRIEST: Lord our God, on this Remembrance Sunday, we remember with love and gratitude those who “gave their today for our tomorrow”. We offer you our prayers through Jesus, the Prince of Peace and your Holy Spirit of Peace. Amen
